The County Administrator at his discretion may make any verbatim transcription requested generally available to all members of the Board.
- 9.13. Unapproved Minutes shall be released publicly upon incorporation into and completion of the Meeting Agenda Book. At the discretion of the County Administrator, unapproved Minutes may be released publicly at an earlier time; availability of completed unapproved Minutes shall not compel release at such earlier time.

- 2.2. Any County administrative employee so empowered by this Article may take lawful action to cause the removal of any person disrupting the conduct of County business in his assigned office area. # 10 Presentation of 2002 Washington County Comprehensive Plan as Recommended by the Washington County Planning Commission

Mr. F. M. Crowell, County Planner, presented the Washington County, Virginia 2002 Comprehensive Plan as recommended by the Washington County Planning Commission. Mr. Crowell informed the Board of Supervisors that the Planning Commission after careful and considerable consideration approved and recommended the Washington County, Virginia 2002 Comprehensive Plan on December 16, 2002.

Mr. Crowell explained that the Code of Virginia, 15.2-2226, requires the Board of Supervisors, after a public hearing, shall approve and adopt, amend and adopt, or disapprove the plan or part thereof. The Board may remand the Plan back to the Planning Commission for additional study, but the Board may also amend the Plan as they deem fit. The Board of Supervisors must take action on the Plan within ninety days or by March 16, 2003.

Mr. Crowell provided the Board with a timeline of opportunities provided and encouraged for public comment. A sixty-day public comment period, August 28 through October 26, was provided after the Comprehensive Plan Steering Committee recommended the first draft of the Plan to the Planning Commission on August 12, 2002. The Planning Commission conducted two Public Hearings, October 28 and November 25, 2002, to receive formal public input concerning the Plan. The Planning Commission also conducted a special work session and recessed meeting on December 16, 2002. Mr. Crowell informed the Board that as a result of the sixty-day public comment period and the two Public Hearings, sixty persons provided comments concerning the Plan. In general there are 34 negative comments and 26 positive comments about the Plan. Most of the negative comments concerned the 20-acre recommendation, the 20% slope recommendation, and utilities recommendations. At the special Planning Commission meeting of December 16, 2002 the Commission took action to make thirteen changes to the plan. These changes eliminated the 20% excessive slope recommendation, reduced the 20-acre recommendation in the A-1 areas to a 5-acre recommendation, and removed the recommendations concerning public sewer.

The County Planner noted that Chapter I, Introduction, provides a brief history of Planning in Washington County, and methods utilized to engage citizens Washington County in the development of the Comprehensive Plan. Chapter II, Growth Trends and Projections, consists of a treatment of demographics, housing, economy, and factor that impact Growth was presented. Chapter III, Land Use Plan and Guidelines for Growth is the Land Use Plan element of the Plan and contains a land development guide for phased-in land development, and special strategy areas. Chapter IV, Goals, Objectives, and Strategies, provides guidance for development decisions. Chapter V, Implementation Tools, deals mostly with zoning and subdivision provisions.

Mr. Crowell stated that the Board had been provided a copy of the Planning Commission's options for possible Plan text changes. In addition, the Board has been provided a copy of the comments concerning the Comprehensive Plan. These items are provided as background information to show how the Commission got to their recommendation.

After some discussion, Mr. Derting acknowledged the Comprehensive Plan Steering Committee and Mr. Ingle and Mr. McCall for their tireless efforts. Mr. Derting also noted that the process involving the citizens had been successful.

On a motion by Mr. Ingle and seconded by Mr. McCall, the Board accepted for its review the Washington County, Virginia 2003 Comprehensive Plan and established February 4, 2003 for a Public Hearing concerning the Plan.
