Two individuals have been charged as a result of two separate break-ins that occurred in Washington County, Virginia, in the early morning hours of Tuesday, January 15, 2013. According to Washington County Sheriff Fred Newman, the Wildflower Bakery located 24443 Lee Highway, Abingdon, VA, as well as an adjacent business, Pizza Plus, located at 24465 Lee Highway, Abingdon, VA, were broken into and cash, jewelry and electronics were taken from the businesses.

Sheriff Fred Newman said, "It was determined that the two suspects had backed their vehicle into a large drainage ditch in front of the business that had just broken into. The suspects were attempting to move the vehicle when deputies arrived on scene."

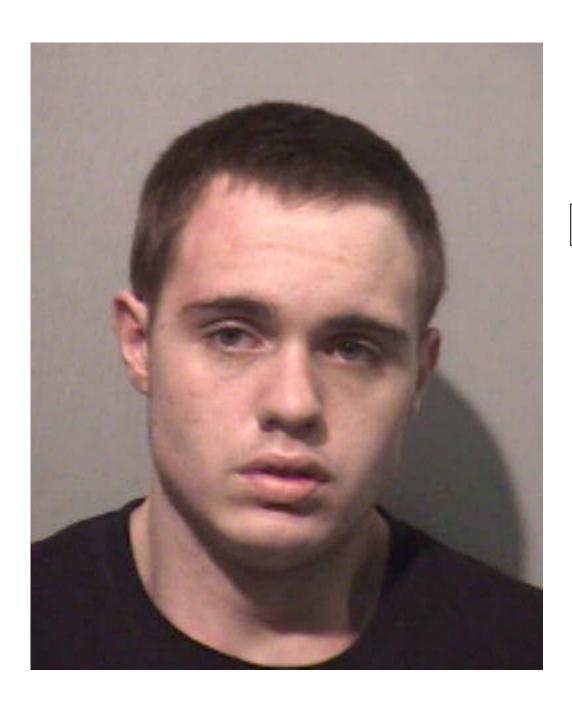

James Dylan Holmes, age 20, of 8370 Dublin Lane, Abingdon, VA, was arrested and charged with two counts of breaking and entering, one count of grand larceny and one count of petit larceny. He is being held on a $3,000 secured bond at the Southwest Virginia Regional Jail in Abingdon.

Charles David Black, age 22, of 26829 Denton Valley Road, Abingdon, VA, was also arrested and has been charged with one count of breaking and entering and one count of grand larceny. He is also being held on a $3,000 secured bond at the Southwest Virginia Regional Jail in Abingdon.

A significant amount of property and cash from the break-ins has been recovered. The investigation was conducted by Detective Mike Martin and Deputies Marty Lloyd, Mike Mason, Denny Clark and Brandon McPherson.
