A total of eighteen felony charges have been lodged against three persons, charging them with multiple business and residential break-ins as the result of an investigation conducted by the Washington County Virginia Sheriff's Office. According to Washington County Sheriff Fred Newman, a vehicle fitting the description of one observed at a residential break-in, and the same description of the vehicle used in the break-in of the Glade Spring Pharmacy, was stopped by Sheriff's deputies in the Glade Spring area of Washington County.

A white trash bag containing a large quantity of narcotics taken from the pharmacy break-in and subsequent break-ins at various residences in the Glade Spring area was seized, along with several firearms that were taken in the various break-ins.

Travis Lee Stanley, age 21, of 118 Hemlock Street, Glade Spring, VA, was arrested and has been charged with five counts of grand larceny, four counts of breaking and entering, and one count of conspiracy to commit grand larceny. Stanley has been released on a $23,000 secured bond.

James Paul Stanley, age 25, also of 118 Hemlock Street, Glade Spring, VA, brother of Travis Lee Stanley, was arrested and charged with three counts of breaking and entering, three counts of grand larceny, and one count of conspiracy to commit grand larceny. James Paul Stanley has been released from jail on a $25,000 secured bond.

Brittany Hess Stanley, age 20, of 12497 Deerfield Lane, Glade Spring, wife of Travis Lee Stanley, was also arrested. She has been charged with one count of conspiracy to commit grand larceny and has been released from jail on a $5,000 secured bond.

Sheriff's Office personnel who were involved in this comprehensive investigation include Detectives J. S. Blevins and M. E. Martin, and Sheriff's Deputies Mike Mason and Brandon Tweed.
